signed executrix of said estate by the Probate Court of Chariton County, Missouri, said letters being dated May 16th, 1916.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit the same to me for allowance within six months from the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any of the benefits of said estate, but if such claims are not exhibited

IT is not alone the youngsters who are glad that Ivory Soap floats. Everybody who uses it values this quality next to Ivory's mildness and purity.

In the bathtub it means not only convenience but freedom from possible injury to have the soap always at hand and in sight instead of at the bottom of the tub where it may be stepped on.

And in toilet or laundry use the floating cake is a great economy because it reminds one to take it from the water instead of sinking out of sight and mind to waste away.

Edgar Wilks will be sought after by fancy car builders. He has trimmed his ancient Cham-lers up in a way to make it appear like a 1917 model, and tinkered the machinery until it moves and performs generally like a 6 Peerless. If you see a canary streak moving at a 60 rate up the big road, that's Edgars fliver and him.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Cure fails to cure.
Send for circulars and testimonials.

Talks with Screen-Struck Girls No. 19

By BEATRIZ MICHELENA

In my last "talk" I commented somewhat upon the type of features that photograph best in motion pictures and the difficulty often experienced in correctly estimating values in this respect. Sometimes the girl that might be expected to show to great advantage on the screen, proves an utter impossibility as a photographic subject. That it should be so seems out of all reason and inexplicable, but must be accepted as one of the vagaries of the picture camera.

Neither can any definite judgment as to a person's motion picture possibilities be based on the kind of portrait he or she can secure from the "still" photographer. A "still" photograph is specially posed with lights and position carefully arranged for the occasion. If this alone is not enough, the photographer can re-touch the negative and if he is clever enough, bring out one feature strongly and subordinate another. The motion picture, however, must accept things pretty much as it finds them. There is but limited opportunity for special arrangements and poses, and none at all for retouching.

It is consequently with considerable hesitancy that I attempt any analysis of facial lines or features in connection with motion picture requisites. Any thing I say must be tentatively and with reservations.

With this understood, I will venture the opinion that the eyes are the most important of a picture actress feature. In drama where the voice is denied one, the eyes are the most nearly audi-able part of the face. I think that you will find them always the most eloquent. I have often heard it said that dumb animals,— the horse or dog for instance, talk with their eyes and I have certainly found it true with my own pets. The only reason we have not taken this more into consideration in respect to people is because they have a tongue and consequently there is small need to pay attention to the eyes.

In a way I believe it took motion pictures to make us realize just how much one may express with the eyes. The screen emphasized the old adage that "The eyes are the lamp of the soul."

I will not attempt to say what kind of eyes in shape and size and color are the most desirable. As a general thing directors believe that dark ones photograph the best. Hazel eyes too prove excellent in this respect, as do any others where there is a decided contrast between the iris and the white. Such eyes always seem to be the most decisive and to enunciate the most plainly in "screen language." In any event it is the expressive rather than the merely pretty eye that pictures require. They must be readily responsive to every mood of the actress' role. They must interpret her part; in short, they must talk.

THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Girls! Try It! Hair gets soft, fluffy and beautiful—Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine.

If you care for heavy hair that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.
Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff. You can not have nice heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive scurf robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots famish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast. Surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store and just try it.

TO ALL SUBSCRIBERS.

On and after JULY 1, 1916 the subscription price for the Chariton Courier will be $1.50 THE YEAR. All who pay before that time will get the year for $1.00, but payment to some date beyond July 1, 1916 will be necessary to get the paper for the year at that rate.

The immense increase in the price of print paper and the hint that it may soon be hard to get at any price within the reach of small publishers, together with great advance in everything else connected with printing, makes it imperative that either the price of the paper be advanced, its size cut down or half of it patent print, neither of which is agreeable to us, but we prefer to advance the price to adopting either of the other alternatives.

You can readily see the advantage to you in paying ahead.

Every subscriber six months in arrears will be cut off our list July 1.

INVITATION

A. V. SIMMON, the Keytesville Merchant Tailor, cordially invites the people of this vicinity to come earlier to select their good clothes because I cut and make up every garment myself according to the fancies of the customer. And second my prices are lower than some of the ready-to-wear houses.
Because I charge no profit to everyone only for my labor and then add the price of the goods.
That is why I am always found to be very busy
